Blane Curry is a highly credentialed and experienced insurance professional with a diverse background in manufacturing, healthcare, hospitality, renewable energy and the food service industries. Armed with vast expertise and resources, Blane is able to routinely deliver innovative, cost effective and cutting edge strategies that properly protect the business assets, but also reduce balance sheet exposures and ultimately deliver a much lower Total Cost of Risk to his clients, that have both national and global operations. Before joining Tolman & Wiker Insurance Services, an AssuredPartners agency, Blane was most recently a Managing Director for Risk Strategies Company in Woodland Hills for the previous 8 years.

Blane is a Southern California native and Ventura County resident with over 30 years experience in the Commercial Insurance and Risk Management space. He lives in Thousand Oaks with his wife and two daughters who are both currently attending college. Blane is very passionate about health and fitness, and enjoys playing softball, tennis and pickle-ball with friends and family.
