Michael Doll joined Tolman & Wiker Insurance Services in 2017 with a background in Human Resources and Employee Education.

As a Vice President and Employee Benefits Consultant, Michael serves as the lead consultant to his employer group clients. Michael is an expert at evaluating and recommending best-in-class strategies and group benefit plan offerings, including wellness and employee engagement programs, and alternative funding options, which provide his clients with significant cost reductions while elevating team member satisfaction with their benefits programs.

Michael joined the healthcare industry shortly after the introduction of the Affordable Care Act. Since then, he has been an avid reader of healthcare industry books and articles allowing him to stay abreast of marketplace and compliance requirements. Michael conducts an annual review to ensure that his clients understand and distribute the appropriate internal compliance documents, disclosure notices, and plan documents. Through this process, he ensures that his clients meet the various requirements enforced by the Department of Labor, the Affordable Care Act, and the IRS.

Michael graduated with a Bachelor's in Business Management from Loyola University Chicago. After receiving his degree, Michael moved back to his home town of Pasadena to begin his career in insurance as an HR rep at a large group employers office. In 2017 Michael moved to Ventura and joined the Tolman and Wiker team. When he is not in the office, Michael enjoys hiking and playing golf.
