Preventing a Workers' Comp Claim from Litigating

Friday, March 19, 2021
9:00 A.M. to 12:00 P.M.

There is a lot of concern about litigated workers' comp claims, and for good reason. Studies show that on average, litigated claims stay open significantly longer than non-litigated claims (122.8 days of paid TD vs 30.6 days of paid TD). Not surprisingly the total average costs of litigated claims are also considerably much higher when compared to similar non-litigated claims.

We know that there are companies in every industry whose employees litigate just about every claim, or so it would seem. Yet, surprisingly, there are also companies in every industry that may have one litigated claim, if any, over the course of several years. The question is why?

Please join us as we explore this and other relevant important questions. We will not only discuss why employees seek out an attorney, but we will look at what can companies do to deter their claims from being litigated.

If you have any questions or to register for this FREE Webinar please contact Ms. Susie Rodriguez, Administrative Assistant III at 805.585.6797 or via email at srodriguez@tolmanandwiker.com

Speaker:

GILBERT J. CERVANTES

Vice President, Loss Prevention,
Safety & Health

Topics Include:

- Why do some injured employees seek out an attorney? Is it really all about the money or might there exist other "hidden" motivators?
- When is the best time to prevent a claim from litigating?
- The 3-time frames that impact every claim and determine the likelihood of litigation.
- The role that supervisors play in promoting or preventing litigation.
- The role that the company plays in promoting or preventing litigation.
- The 3 main triggers that will cause an injured worker to seek out an attorney.
- Is there a difference between a litigated claim and a fraudulent claim?

This is a complementary webinar with no charge to attend for clients of Tolman & Wiker Ins. There is a $150.00 fee for all others. You must register to reserve your seat.
