

Workers' Compensation 1.0 An Introduction to the System

Wednesday, April 21, 2021
9:00 AM to 12:00 PM

Have you been recently assigned the responsibility for your company's workers' comp program? Do you know the regulatory requirements of the program? What can happen if we fail to comply with those requirements? Is it true that knowing how this system works can help prevent lawsuits?

This workshop will help dispel some of the misconceptions that exist regarding the Workers' Compensation system. Please join us for this informative webinar which will provide you with a better understanding of this important system. Attending this webinar will better prepare you to carry out your associated duties.
